Dear Parents,

Reading is a very fundamental part of our everyday lives! Some may struggle, while others may soar at reading. With that said, we must as parents, educators, mentors, and the community, encourage children to read. Reading is not a punishment but a doorway to the imagination and a wealth of knowledge.

We have begun our "Kids in the Kitchen" series and the students look forward to learning about healthy eating habits and making healthy recipes.

As a reminder for all Grant parents the earliest pick-up time is 5:47 pm. The program closes at 6:00pm.

Simple Tips on Reading

A child's success as a reader begins much earlier than the first day of school. Reading, and a love of reading, begins at home.

Parents of toddlers: recite rhymes, and sing songs; choose engaging books, keep reading short, simple and often.

Parents of kindergarteners: talk to your child; say silly tongue twisters, sing silly songs, and read rhyming books.

Parents of elementary students: re-read favorite books; take control of the television; play word games, I read to you, you read to me; tell family stories and create a writing box with drawing and writing materials.
