Dear Parents,

This is a very short month packed with excitement! We start off with Field Day not only in school but after school, too. This is one of our most favorite activities this year. We love it!!! Coming in at a close second is Spring Break. One week of non-school safe family fun. We hope everyone comes back well rested and ready to finish off the school year with a bang.

On April 19, NASA will be here to broaden our minds with Space Exploration. I hear that this is a very awesome in school field trip and we are all looking forward to having them here.

Please make sure your children are wearing the right style shoes for outside play. There is a lot of running around and we want all toes safely inside their shoes.

Remember all Grant children need to be here until 5:47 and please be here no later than 6PM.

Education is a gift that no one can take away.
