Dear Parents,

Happy New Year 2017! Welcome back. We hope you had a wonderful and restful winter break. We are continuing our study of World Expeditions. Our partners continue to come into our programs to provide enrichment activities for our students. The partners we are seeing this month are 4-H, BCA (Brevard Cultural Alliance), and Boy/Girl Scouts.

We will be having our first Family Workshop for the year on Wednesday, January 18th. A flyer will be coming home soon.

We are collecting some items to use in our activities and would appreciate any donations you can provide: Paper towel or toilet paper rolls, newspaper, magazines, Pringles cans, egg cartons, and 2 liter bottles.

We will be closed on Monday, January 16th, 2017 for Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday.

If you have any questions or concerns, please call or email Ms. Heidi at Jacobson.Heidi@brevardschools.org.

Reminders

Please remember that this is a federally funded program and the main requirements that must be met to continue these services are: that your child needs to attend daily (five days a week) and your child needs to stay to participate each day until 6:00pm. Additionally, you must attend at least two adult workshops during the year.

We are audited throughout the year by observation and record keeping. We do not want to jeopardize the program in its entirety so please help us by respecting these requirements. Also, we enjoy seeing your child learn new tools to help them become successful!

What we learn becomes a part of who we are.

Creating Your Child's Own Reading Library

How to Choose Books:

- Look for books based on your child's interest.
- Find your child's favorites.
- Choose situational books.
- Use books to learn about and celebrate special events.
- Choose a book appropriate to your child's development.
- Look for books that initiate independent reading.
- Choose the right reading level.
- Organize by categories.
